

The newsletter of the Petroleum Equipment Institute

May 25, 2017 | Vol. 67, No. 10

APPOINTMENTS AND TRANSITIONS

Jay Walsh has been named president of Franklin Fueling Systems. Walsh has been with Franklin for 22 years, serving in a variety of technical service, sales, product management and leadership positions. Most recently, he was executive vice president of the company. Franklin also announced that John Adrian has been promoted to senior vice president of sales for Europe, the Middle East and Africa, and Tony Hsu has been named vice president of sales for Asia.

Dave Masterson has joined Dixon Pumps, a Shaw Development Company, as general manager. Masterson has more than 20 years of experience leading business development and operations for domestic and international businesses.

Daniel J. Aular has joined S. Bravo Systems, Inc., as senior manager of engineering. In his new position, Aular will oversee the development, testing and fabrication of new Bravo designs, products and components.

Marty and Cathy Meyer retired May 1, exactly 28 years after opening M & M Service Station Equipment Specialists, Inc. The company, which the Meyers initially ran out of their home, expanded in 2001 with the purchase of Mid-Valley Supply. Today, M & M operates in multiple states and employs more than 60 people. The company has been purchased and will be operated by Mickey Meyer, president and chief executive officer, and Sherrie Keller, vice president and chief financial officer.